STATE ST. STORES ASK MAYOR BREAK UNION

*Same Ill. Mfr's Ass'n That Fought Against $8 a Week
For Department Store Women Now Slamming
Teachers' Federation.*

The Illinois Manufacturers' ass'n, which backed up Marshall Field & Co. and the State street stores in the fight against the minimum wage law two years ago, has sent a letter to Mayor Thompson, asking the mayor to kill the Teachers' Federation.

This association has Catholics and Protestants, Knights of Columbus and Guardians of Liberty among its members. Through its president, S. M. Hastings, the association tells Mayor Thompson "to separate the teachers of the schools from the Teachers' Federation because the Teachers' Federation is controlled by union labor."

William Schlake, one of the school board trustees who voted to kill the Teachers' Federation, is a member of the Illinois Manufacturers' ass'n, it was pointed out at federation headquarters today. Also Mr. Schlake is president of the Illinois Brick Co. This corporation a few years ago was shown by the Teachers' Federation to be capitalized at $9,000,000, and while the market value of the stock was $1,800,000 the assessment was only $9,844. That was in 1904. And the federation led the fight which ended in corporations being assessed at 10 per cent on their capital stock. So Schlake voted to hit an old enemy that had taken money away from him
